

Jacqueline Grennan Wexler (1965-1969)

- Born in Illinois
- A.B., Webster College and M.A., Notre Dame U.
- Was a member of President Kennedy's Advisory Panel on Research and Development in Education and the steering committee for Project Head Start.
- Helped secure numerous grants from major foundations, including the National Science Foundation and the Ford Foundation, which helped fund innovations in the teacher education curriculum
- Was instrumental in the transfer of ownership of the college to a lay board in 1967