communities worldwide.

Emerson Library offers many resources and special services to students, faculty & staff to support your academic research and teaching. Passports, the website for the Eden Webster Library System, is the gateway to these resources and services.

ELECTRONIC BOOKS: The library offers over 15,000+ recent and classic e-books covering a variety of subjects. E-books appear in the library catalog with a hot link to the text of the book. You may also search across the text of all electronic books by using the netLibrary database available from the menu of Passports databases.

ONLINE REFERENCE SOURCES: Passports reference databases include:

- Biography Resource Center
- Grove Dictionary of Art
- Grove Music Online
- Encyclopedia Britannica

Visit our Reference Sources Page <http://library.webster.edu/netresearch/reference.html> to link to other Internet reference sources.

FIND A LIBRARY NEAR YOU: Click the Worldwide Libraries Catalogs link on Passports to find libraries near your campus. You may visit them in person or on their Web site.

ONLINE/FULLTEXT DATABASES

<http://library.webster.edu/databases/database.html>

Over 120 research databases provide access to scholarly resources appropriate to your research needs. Our subscription databases offer thousands of fulltext journal, magazine, & newspaper articles; reference, business & legal information; and bibliographic citations from published sources. Passports databases cover all subject: the humanities, social sciences, business & computers, nursing & science, and also include general/multidisciplinary databases.

Some Multidisciplinary Passports Databases:

Academic Search Premier

Lexis-Nexis Academic

JStor

Some Subject Specific Passports Databases:

ABI/Inform (business)

Business & Company Resource Center

ERIC (education & training)

Literature Resource Center

PsycInfo (psychology & counseling)

New additions:

RefWorks (citation manager)

Central Search (multiple database search engine)

ELECTRONIC JOURNALS: Passports databases offer electronic full text from over 24,000 academic journals, newspapers, and magazines. To search, select an appropriate subject or general database.

USE YOUR WEBSTER ID NUMBER FOR DATABASE ACCESS: Your unique, 7-digit ID number is the password for all Passports databases. If you don't know your number, or if it does not work, contact the staff at your campus, or email docdel@webster.edu.

LOCATING FULL TEXT ARTICLES: If a database does not offer the full-text, check the Journal Magazine Newspaper List linked from the Passports Articles/Databases. Search the journal name to determine if it is available full-text in another Passports database or in print in the library collection. If it is online, you can link to the database and search for the article you need. If the journal is in the library collection, request article delivery.

ARTICLE DELIVERY: Webster students faculty and staff at international campuses may request periodical articles that are unavailable online. Before sending a request, check the Journal Magazine Newspaper List to verify that the journal is not online in a Passports database. For request forms and more information about the document delivery service, click the Request Books or Articles link on the Passports homepage. We post articles from our periodicals in 2 business days. If articles must be requested from other libraries, allow 7 days. <http://library.webster.edu/services/docorder.html>

ELECTRONIC RESERVES: E-Reserves allow faculty to post electronic documents and web links on a secure server for their classes. To access E-Reserves, or set up and administer an account, see <http://ereserves.webster.edu/eres>

TURNITIN PLAGIARISM DATABASE: Turnitin checks assignments & papers for originality against Internet pages as well as a growing database of previously submitted student work. Faculty must set up an account and may either submit electronic copies of student papers or allow students to submit their own. <http://library.webster.edu/services/turnitin.html>

PASSPORTS TUTORIALS: Online tutorials and research guides are available on the Passports. Click the Research Guides link on the International page to access these materials.
